"Scholarship Ethics: Old problems, new twists"

Speaker: Dr Sean Clarke

Professor and Susan E. French Chair in Nursing Research and Innovative Practice.

Director, McGill Nursing Collaborative
Ingram School of Nursing, McGill University

Dr. Clarke's presentation on current issues in the ethics of scholarship will be of particular interest to doctoral students, post-doctoral fellows and new investigators who are beginning to navigate a career in academia. This is an important opportunity to learn about issues (e.g., authorship, roles and contributions of co-investigators, self-plagiarism) that are of concern to all researchers, but often not addressed in training programs.
