

Speaker: Dr Anne E. Sales

RN, PhD

Professor, Division of Nursing Business & Health Systems, University of Michigan
School of Nursing, USA

Conference

“Organizing for quality and safety- Evidence about what matters in nursing care?”

Dr. Sales' research focuses on improving quality of care, implementing evidence based practice, studying implementation, and analysing organization of nursing services. Her clinical experience includes hospital and community gerontological nursing and primary care.

Date: Wednesday 18 September 2013, 10:00 to 11:30
Location: Université de Montréal- Pavillon Marguerite-d'Youville
Room: 1084 Language: English

For registration please access the “events” section on www.rrisiq.com

Afternoon Informal Meetings with Dr Sales

The presentation will be followed by more informal and intimate meetings with RRISQ researchers, graduate students and guests who wish to meet with Dr. Sales in person to discuss work in the area of nursing services administration. (4 meetings of 30 minutes each are available between 14:00-16:30)

Date: Wednesday 18 September 2013, 14:00 to 16:30
Location: Université de Montréal- Pavillon Marguerite-d'Youville
Room: 5093 Language: English

To schedule a meeting with Dr. Sales, or if you wish to participate in the morning conference by videoconference please contact edna.brustein@umontreal.ca (before September 5th 2013)